To the Tennis Coach

The student whose name appears above has applied for the Darren Lajaunie GRAND SLAM Tennis Scholarship. The winning applicant will receive a $1,000 scholarship from the Darren Lajaunie Tennis Scholarship Fun to attend the college of their choice.

Darren was a devoted husband and father. He was a dedicated engineer for Lockheed Martin at the Johnson Space Center with a compelling passion for the game of tennis.

Darren began his tennis career playing tennis at J. Frank Dobie High School in Houston and graduated Co-Valedictorian in 1984. At the University of Texas Tennis Club, Darren won the 1988 Spring Open Champion Men’s “B” Singles title. At the Bay Area Racquet Club (BARC) in Houston, Darren was the Men’s 3.5 Singles Champion July 2010, and Men’s 4.0 Singles Champion in August, 2010. In September at BARC he was a Finalist in the Men’s 4.5 Singles Championship game. Darren graduated from UT with a degree in Electrical Engineering in 1988.

Darren was diagnosed with Melanoma cancer in October 2009 and while enduring many clinical trials and chemo treatments, continued to play tennis and worked until his death in May 2011. He was the epitome of leadership, sportsmanship, courage, dignity, strength and had the heart of a true tennis champion.

The applicant will be evaluated on the basis of academic abilities, character, and service demonstrated to his/her school and community; in addition to the aforementioned qualities that Darren Lajaunie exhibited in his lifetime.

The applicant is NOT allowed to see your response and we ask that you mail this form in a school envelope with your signature across the back seal of the envelope to the Darren Lajaunie Tennis Scholarship office, 3106 Mossy Elm Court, Houston, TX 77059. All information submitted is confidential and will ONLY be reviewed by the Darren Lajaunie Tennis Scholarship Selection Committee.
